

ROOTED & READY

Father-Son Faith Journal

Opening

Four journaling sessions built around identity, courage, obedience, and integrity -- the things a young man needs rooted in him before the world hands him its own definitions. Read the passage together, then each write your own answers before comparing notes.

Identity: Whose You Are

1 Peter 2:9

"You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession."

What has the world told you that you have to be, to matter? _____

What does it change to know your worth was settled before you did anything to earn it? _____

Courage: Strong and Steady

Joshua 1:9

"Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Journal It

What's something you've been avoiding because it feels too hard or too scary? _____

Where have you seen real courage in a man you respect -- what did it look like, specifically? _____

Obedience: Trusting the Instructions

John 14:15

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments."

Journal It

Where is it hardest for you to actually follow through on what you know is right? _____

What's the difference between obeying out of fear and obeying out of love? _____

Integrity: Who You Are When No One's Watching

Proverbs 10:9

"Whoever walks in integrity walks securely, but he who makes his ways crooked will be found out."

Journal It

Is there a gap between how you act in public and how you act alone? Be honest. _____

What's one small choice this week where you can practice doing the right thing unseen? _____
